

East of England Talent Community of Practice

Terms of Reference – September 2021

Introduction

This document sets out the purpose, aims, core principles and roles of respective contributors of the East of England (EoE) Talent Community of Practice (TCoP).

Our Ambition for Talent is that it mobilises the many, rather than a special few, which unleashes potential across the whole workforce driving greater retention, skill development, mobility and pipelines to critical roles within and across each ICS, enabling and supporting whole system talent management

Purpose of the Talent Community of Practice

A community of practice is an informal network that emerges from a desire to work more effectively, or to understand work more deeply among members of a particular specialty or work group. At the simplest level, communities of practice are small groups of people who've worked together over time to develop a common sense of purpose, and a desire to share work-related knowledge and experience through extensive communication.

'Communities of practice are groups of people who share a concern or a passion for something they do and learn how to do it better as they interact regularly.

The practice of a community is dynamic and involves learning on the part of everyone'.

As described by Etienne and Beverly Wenger-Traynor

Our purpose is to work collaboratively to agree and embed a common approach to identifying, developing and deploying our talented people across the system. This will enable us to deliver a health and social care system around the needs of patients and communities. We do this through inspiring new thinking, sharing expertise and fostering new initiatives that create and spread new knowledge practices and capabilities.

Our aims and objectives are to

- Agree our definition of talent management
- Co-create and make the best use of the tools and resources we have available to us to identify, develop and retain our talented people
- Jointly identify our current and future people/leadership requirements
- Build local talent footprints at ICS level responsive to local workforce needs and priorities supporting systems and organisations to identify and grow their own talent, deploy and retain talent across organisational boundaries and systems.
- Know where our critical vacancies are, and work together to share and deploy our talented people to fill our critical roles
- Influence our organisations and systems to engage more effectively in local talent management approaches as well as influencing a shift in mindset to a system wide approach and influence a culture of seeing all our people in terms of talent and potential
